

Skills Testing BLS Provider and Heartsaver CPR

Thank you for registering for our upcoming CPR Skills testing session. Please take a few moments to read this document in its entirety as it contains important information about the class.

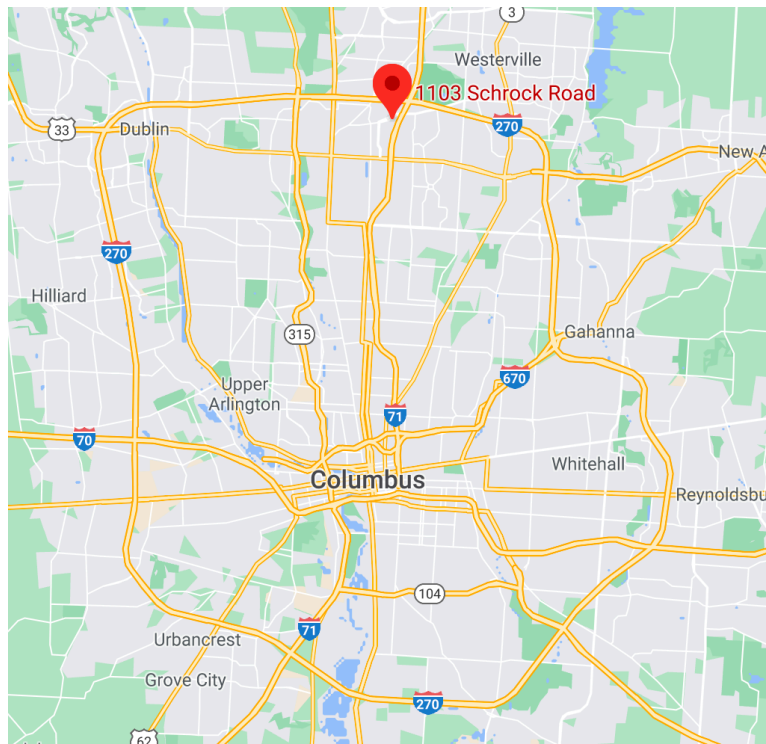

This class is only for students who have completed the Heartcode BLS course or Heartsaver CPR AED Online course through the American Heart Association. If you have not yet purchased or completed this class, you can do so online at <https://elearning.heart.org>.

Online Completion Certificate

The American Heart Association requires that a copy of your online course completion certificate be presented to the instructor when you arrive to complete the skills testing. We are unable to complete your session without this document so please make sure you bring it with you on the day of your test.

Class Location

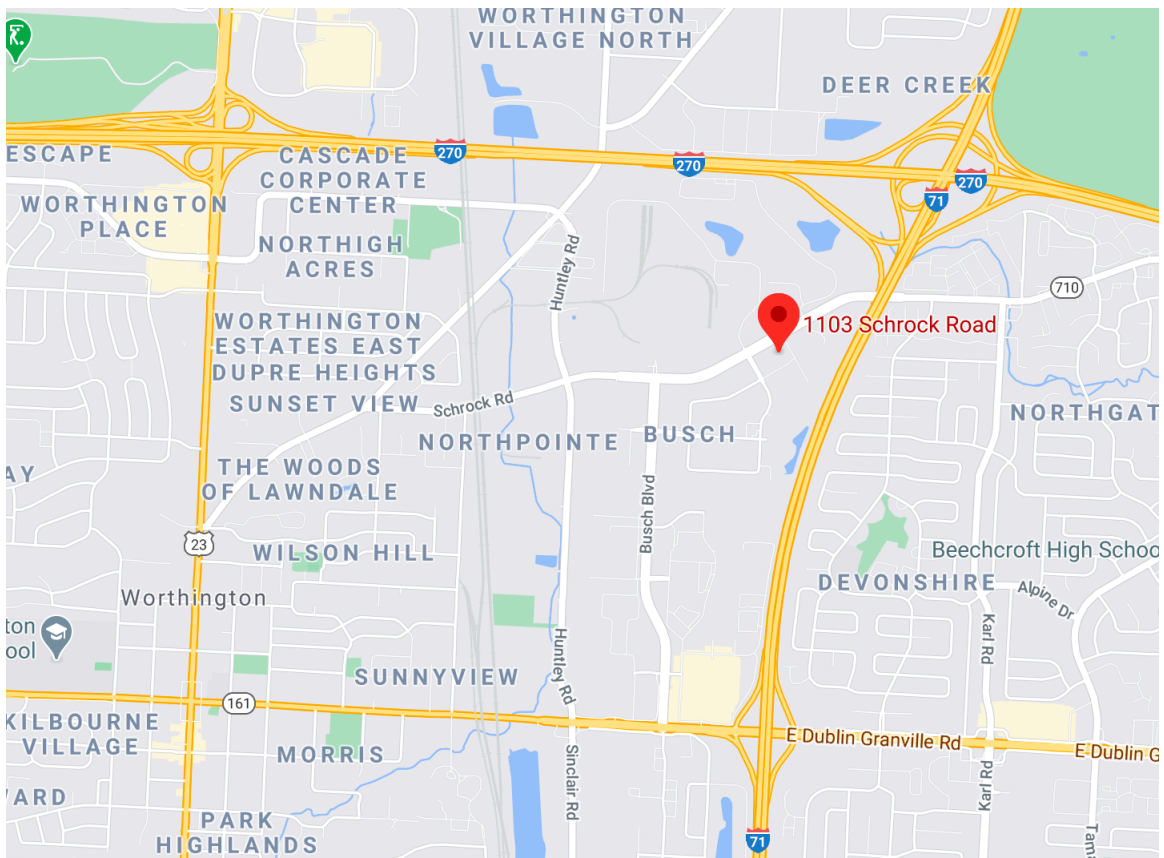

This class is being held in our training center on the north end of Columbus. We are located on Schrock Road directly across from the Anheuser Busch brewery. Once you enter the building our offices are directly off the lobby on the first floor.
