

PALS Skills Session Orientation

Thank you for registering for our upcoming PALS Skills testing session. Please take a few moments to read this document in its entirety as it contains important information about the class.

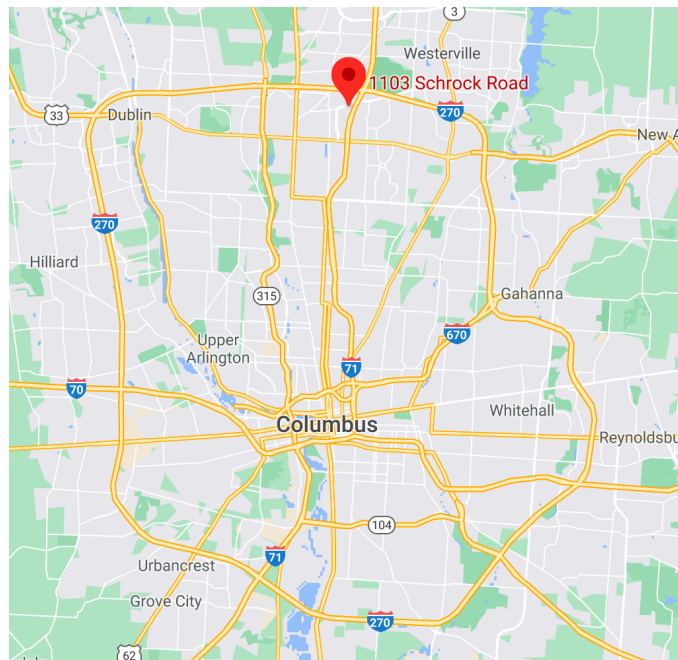

This class is only for students who have completed the online Heartcode PALS course through the AHA. If you have not yet purchased or completed the online course you can do so through the American Heart Association website at <https://elearning.heart.org>.

Online Completion Certificate

The American Heart Association requires that a copy of your online course completion certificate be presented to the instructor when you arrive to complete the skills testing. Students who do not bring their completion certificate will not be admitted and will not be eligible for a refund of class fees.

Class Location

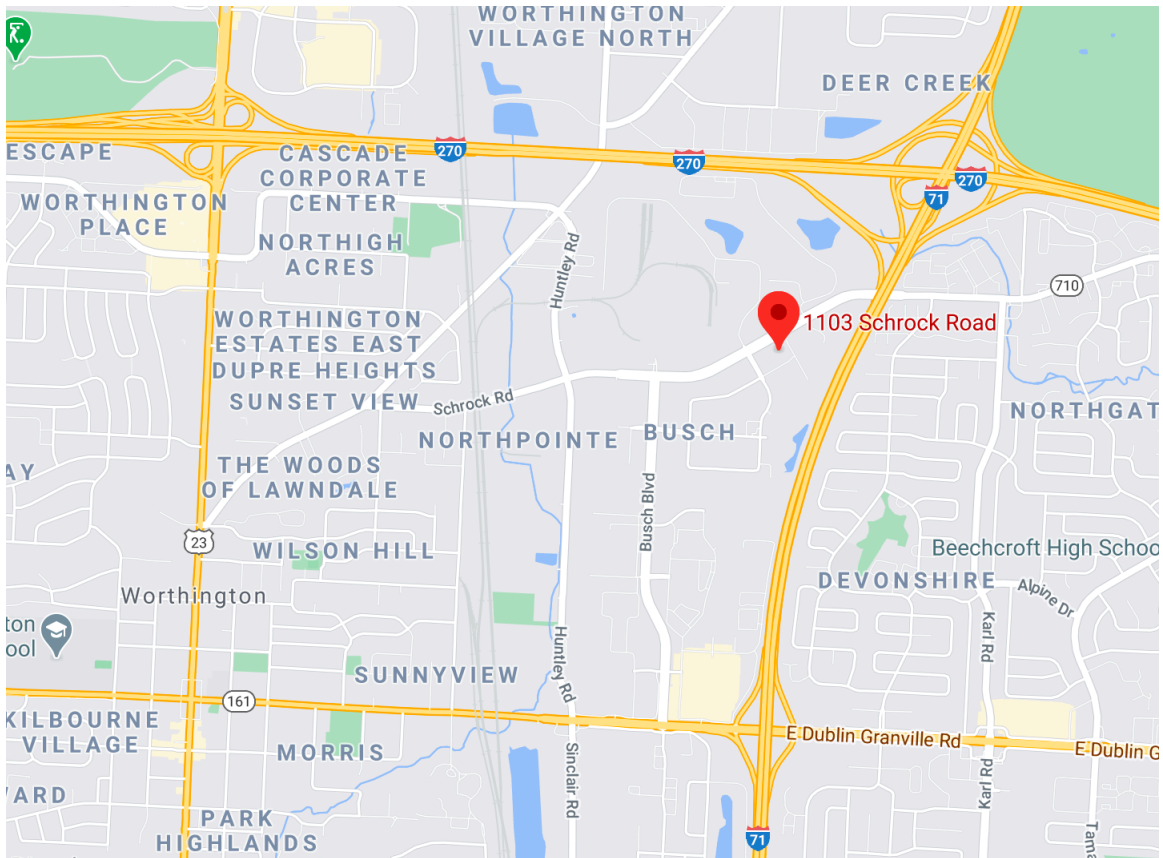

This class is being held in our training center on the north end of Columbus. We are located on Schrock Road directly across from the Anheuser Busch brewery. Once you enter the building our offices are directly off the lobby on the first floor.
